Conference Denies Request for Man to Devote Whole Time to Missions.

OBJECTION BY MINISTERS

Work of Children's Home Missionary Society Explained.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) esition from the board of missions at the session to-day caused more discussion than anything else since the conference started. It asked for a vote his whole time to the work, and The request brought a number of dele-getes to their feet, some for and some against the proposition, and it was the occasion for the first speech from a layman since the conference opened. The report was presented by Rev. C. D. Harris, who said that the work had grown to such proportions that unless they had a man to devote his whole time to the work, the movement would begin to recede.

He was supported by Dr. B. F. Bond, presiding elder of the Rockingham District: Dr. J. H. Light, of Front Royal, and Laymen Charles F. Arm-strong and Judge Ed. Newman. latter is the leader of the Lay.

men's Missionary Movement in Virginia, and he made a strong and earnest plea for the report of the board.

Several preachers argued that it was work that the ministers ought to do, and were required to do by biblical injunction. They also thought it was adding too heavily to the burder of the members of the church, and that it would have a tendency to make the it would have a tendency to make the pastors take less interest in missions.

all of which would be a very bad thing.

They made it clear that they did not want to hamper the cause of missions, but that they did not want expensive machinery if it could be avoided.

A vote was taken and resulted in denying the request of the board. It was a rising vote, and resulted in a three-fourths vote for those opposed to the request.

Not a Man to Spare.

After the matter was ended, Bishop Hoss said that he had kept his own opinions to himself until the conference had acted, but that he would now say that if the conference had approvement of the years, he would have the men to spare.

The Baltimore conference had lost several good men last year, he said, and they needed now more men than they had. say that if the conference had approv-ed the request, he would have been they had.

The blood is the great source of nourishment for all flesh tissues. As it constantly circulates throughout the system it carries the necessary nutrient properties to every portion of the body. It is because of this continual replenishment that the flesh remains firm and healthy and free from disease. Since the blood exercises such an important and necessary function we can easily understand why impurities or poisons in this vital fluid so often infect and disease the flesh at some particular spot, and by continually discharging impurities into it cause the forma-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch] Pungoteague, Va., April 1.—Professor chard Johnson, principal of the Belle Haven High School, was killed aday by an automobile turning turtle, and Dr. Sydney Kellam was seously injured.

Dr. Kellam, who is a practicing physician at Belle Haven, was on his way to Harborton to see a patient, and had in his car his friend, Professor John-son. Just outside of the town of Pungoteague, the auto struck a rut in the road and turned over, and caught Professor Johnson and crushed him to death. A part of the machine pierced through the right lung. He lived only thirty minutes.

Dr Kellam was thrown some dis-

A War Memento.

Clerk of the Courts Robert Gilliam to-day received a letter from W. O. Howard, of Roseboro, N. C., mention-ing a matter of interest. Mr. Howard, who was a soldier of the Old North State, says that during the war he had on a battlefield near the Wilderness, a New Testament, with the name of Benjamin H. May, Company A, Twelfth Virginia Regiment, written on the flyleaf, with the number and names of the battles in which he had fought. Mr. Howard says he kept the Testament throughout the balance of the war, has it now and will be glad to return it to any member of May's fam-lly if so desired,
